Title	Communication skills
Course Coordinator	Aqeel Mohammed Jassim
Course Objective	Conversation is one of the most important aspects of learning English, because it is considered a measure of students' improvement in the English language. The higher the level of English-speaking skill is, the higher is the rest of other language skills. The course aims to enable students to listen and speak English with understanding and fluency in everyday real-life situations.

Course Description	Giving the students one-to-one speaking exercises by listening to the conversations recorded on the CD, and reading the conversations synchronously with the listening skill. The students work out actual conversation exercises on the topics in each conversation unit that is related to an aspect of life. Giving students homework and class assignments in forming free conversations in parallel with the topic of conversation in the unit presented in the textbook.
