

A delegation of teachers and students representing Dept. of Accounting in Shatt Al-Arab University College visited The Cancer-Specialized Hospital for Children in the city of Basra on Tuesday 8-6-2021. Material and moral gifts were presented to the children to show feelings of love and care towards them. Their families expressed happiness for that initiative which helped their children a lot. Also, director and staff of the hospital thanked the visitors and praised what Shatt Al-Arab University College was constantly doing to support this hospital.

