

“The Role of the Administrative Judiciary in Protecting Public Freedoms”

Under the patronage of the Dean of Shatt Al-Arab University College, Prof. Dr. Taher Mohsen Mansoor. Within the scientific activities, the Law Department organized on Thursday 26/11/2020 a panel discussion under the title The Role of the Administrative Judiciary in Protecting Public Freedoms which is held through the Google Meet Program.

Prof. Dr. Ghadi Makled, Head of the Public Law Department at the Islamic University of Lebanon, participated in the workshop as a keynote speaker.

The workshop was attended by a number of department heads, faculty members in the college, in addition to students of the Law Department. It included many scientific interventions by the attendees, specialists in this field, and some appropriate proposals were put forward to develop the judicial system, protect freedom and preserve rights, and certificates of participation were distributed to the attendees.

